224-226 Main Street

There is no need at all for a non-progressive store in a city of progressive people; nor for a non-advertising store in a city of ad-readers.

A store based and built upon SERVICE and unvarying VALUE-GIVING always makes its advertising worthy of the most careful attention.

Save Time and Worry

BY USING

Richelieu Salad Dressing

Made from the purest ingredients, perfectly blended. By the addition of a little cream, you have a dressing for all fruits. For Fish Meats, or Lobster it is delicious. For fruits a little cream makes the desired combination.

Try a nice salad for a dinner made with RICHELIEU Salad Dressing. It's delicious.

CERTIFICATES

Are Being Sent Out to Teachers Who Successfully Pass Examination.

In the absence of County Superintendent L. Wayman Ogden, the certificates as the result of the recent school teachers' examination here are being sent out by Ray Smith, delegated so to do by the county superintendent.

The examination resulted in four first grade certificates for graded schools, one No. one elementary, four No. one primary, twelve No. 2 of which six are graded and six primary, thirteen No. 3 of which ten are elementary and three graded and eleven failures. Twenty-seven applicants other than those receiving certificates or failing as already mentioned did not raise their grades.

NEW FURNITURE STORE.

W. A. Bass, representing The Biggs Antique Furniture Company, of Richmond, Va., will open up in a few days at 212 West Main street, a room formerly occupied by The James & Law Co., for an auction sale of Antique Mahogany Furniture. Mr. Biggs stated that his first car of furniture from Richmond would arrive about Monday, September 5.

LABOR DAY DANCE.

A big Labor Day dance will be held at the armory, Glen Elk, Monday night, September 5. Music by Cadenza orchestra.

"ISHMAEL"

Is the Name of the Play at the Grand Opera House Tonight.

"Ishmael," or "From the Depths," a comedy drama of universal worth and a dramatization of Mrs. Southworth's striking American novel of the same name, will be the offering of the Earle Stock Company at the Grand tonight.

The play follows closely the situations and the dialogue of the novel, which is familiar to all readers of popular fiction, and the plot concerns the fortunes and the development of the character of a young man born in obscurity and under the shadow of a cloudy birthright, who rises, through love of his dead mother, to fame and honor.

At the matinee tomorrow afternoon the company will introduce for the first time on any stage a pretty comedy drama of love and adventure entitled "The Man of Her Choice."

All specialties will as usual be changed.

Mrs. William H. Freeman has gone to Columbus, O., to visit her son, Joseph Freeman, for a month.

DANCING.

Prof. Nott's, Friday night. Reception at the armory, Glen Elk. Gentlemen 50 cents. Ladies complimentary, 8:30 to 10:30. Special class for beginners Thursday night, September 1.

THREE JAILED

In Default of Fines by Mayor at Session of Police Court.

Three of a dozen men, who were tried this morning at the regular session of police court by Mayor Frank R. Moore, were sentenced to jail in default of fines. F. W. Willis and Charles Manning, who were convicted of drunkenness and loitering in the streets, were sentenced to serve ten days each in jail and John Maxwell, who was convicted of drunkenness, was sent over for three days.

Two men were fined $4.60 each for begging in the streets but their dues were suspended under condition of leaving the city at once. One man paid $4.60 for interfering with a policeman who was making an arrest, another paid $4.10 for drunkenness, another gave an order for a fine of $6.60, which was imposed for insulting two women at the railroad station; and another man, fined for drunkenness, was released on his promise to leave the city.

FUNERAL OF CHILD.

Funeral services were held Friday morning at 9 o'clock over the body of Guy, aged one year, son of Joe Ferro, of Meadowbrook, at the Church of Immaculate Conception and burial was in Holy Cross cemetery. The baby died Thursday afternoon of cholera infantum.
